Welcome to Larchmont

Waterfront Community-driven Picturesque

Around The Block

Larchmont is a charming waterfront village in the town of Mamaroneck. A longtime summer vacation destination for nearby Manhattanites, it is now a peaceful seaside suburb just a half-hour northeast of New York City. Residents enjoy unique town amenities, upscale shopping, and annual local traditions, making Larchmont a spectacular place to create a lovely lifestyle.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

A mix of convenience and opulence. South of the Metro-North train station, you'll find terrific restaurants, adorable boutiques, and even a local movie theater along Palmer Avenue.

THE LIFESTYLE:

Family-friendly and incredibly welcoming. Larchmont boasts a wealth of cultural experiences for residents—from music classes to the award-winning children's programming at the public library to the Larchmont Newcomers' Club, which organizes playdates, book clubs, and neighborly social gatherings.

YOU'LL FALL IN LOVE WITH:

The century-old yacht clubs, stunning pre-war construction, and unique public parks that cater to residents young, old—and even furry!
