Welcome to New Rochelle

New Rochelle

Farmers Market Quiet Rural Hiking

Around The Block

Settled by the refugee Huguenots from France in 1688, New Rochelle maintains a significant French population to this day. New Rochelle's downtown is one of Westchester's only major urban centers. It features a number of renowned restaurants, a fabulous library, and is home to Iona College and New Roc City.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

Bustling Downtown, with easy access to New York City and Sound

THE LIFESTYLE:

A vibrant downtown known for street fairs, and history, to the estates and beach clubs of its shoreline, New Rochelle lives up to its nickname, "The Queen City of the Sound."

YOU'LL FALL IN LOVE WITH: tree-lined neighborhoods, proximity to parks the Lona Island Sound

Commute Times

Grand Central: Peak trains to Grand Central run about 31 minutes long. New Rochelle also provides easy access to I-95 and the Hutchinson River Parkway.
