Welcome to White Plains

Business Hub Downtown Shopping Nature

Around The Block

WHAT TO EXPECT:

Located just 25 miles north of Manhattan and in the heart of Westchester County, White Plains is one of the most accessible cities in the region. The city provides a vibrant community with a wide array of services and amenities for its residents and visitors of all ages.

THE LIFESTYLE:

Known as the birth place of the state of NY, White Plains is a wonderful suburb with a full backing of urban amenities. It is Westchester's premier business market and is the center for the county's largest concentration of retail activity. Outside of the lively downtown you'll find lots of greenery, including several parks and sprawling neighborhoods.

YOU'LL FALL IN LOVE WITH:

The bars, restaurants, coffee shops, and parks in White Plains make it a very attractive place to live. In addition, with a farmer's market, 15-screen movie theatre, public golf course, skating rink, restaurants and major retail stores throughout the city, it presents something for everyone.
